

Talking Shop.
Enthusiasm is always an advantage, but, on the other hand, it is not well for a woman in business to talk of her work at all times and places. Naturally, the thing that we do constantly is our most absorbing interest, but we must remember that other people have other things to talk about.

Disillusionment.
A woman had three caskets to give to a man. One day she read in his eyes that he could take but the nearest and lowest, and that instant arose from her heart the wailing cry, "The king is dead."—Will Livingston Com-fort.

Overheard at the Club.
"Marie Gayway says she makes her husband pay her a dollar every time he kisses her. She's saving for a limousine." "Now, if she'd only adopted a similar plan before she met Gayway, she might have had a whole garage."—Judge.

Corruption.
Men are not corrupted by the exercise of power or debased by the habit of obedience; but by the exercise of a power which they believe to be illegitimate and by obedience to a rule which they consider to be usurped and oppressive.

Bud's Thoughtfulness.
One of the younger set in Newton, Kan., says that her mother is so crippled with rheumatism and it is so hard to see her doing the week's washing that it is unendurable. "I always go shopping on washday," says the Bud.—Kansas City Star.

Discovery Valuable to Science.
A German chemist recently discovered that the extract of the skin of red radishes in alcohol is more sensitive to acids and alkalis than litmus, tumeric, or any of the chemicals usually used to detect their presence.

Just how long people have been eating eggs is not known, certainly long before breakfasts were "invented" or made a custom. There is no doubt mankind in a barbaric state had learned of the use of certain eggs as a food.

Gross Carelessness.
"Bill's going to sue the company for damages." "Why, what did they do to him?" "They blew the quinine whistle when 'e was carryin' a 'nappy piece of iron, and 'e dropt it on 'is foot.'—Everybody's Magazine.

May Be Some Truth In This.
"There was a time in my romantic young life when I believed there was such a thing as a broken heart," commented Cordelia Killjoy, "but nowadays I think it is often mistaken for what is really a cracked head."

Prospective Statesman.
"Your boy stole a barrel of apples from me the other day." "Dear me, I wonder where that boy will wind up?" "I think he'll wind up in the legislature. He talked me into believing that it was all right."

Grape a Prolific Grower.
There are about 40 species of grapes in the world, more than half of which are found in North America. Few other plants on this continent grow wild under such varied conditions and over such extended areas.

Knew Where He Was.
Sportsman—"Can you tell me where to send a handkerchief I have found belonging to Father Maloney?" Irish Priest—"I can; but he'll have no use for it. He's been in Hiven these three weeks."—Punch.

Change of Scene.
Irritability is often cured by a change of scene. If a family could separate for a day or so, many of the little annoyances would be cleared up by the happy reunion.

Phones for Rescuers.
A telephone designed for the use of mine rescuers whose heads are covered with helmets while at work is operated by throat vibrations, the transmitter being held at the throat.

Pains All Over!

"You are welcome," says Mrs. Nora Guffey, of Broken Arrow, Okla., "to use my letter in any way you want to, if it will induce some suffering woman to try Cardui. I had pains all over, and suffered with an abscess. Three physicians failed to relieve me. Since taking Cardui, I am in better health than ever before, and that means much to me, because I suffered many years with womanly troubles, of different kinds. What other treatments I tried, helped me for a few days only."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Don't wait, until you are taken down sick, before taking care of yourself. The small aches and pains, and other symptoms of womanly weakness and disease, always mean worse to follow, unless given quick treatment.

You would always keep Cardui handy, if you knew what quick and permanent relief it gives, where weakness and disease of the womanly system makes life seem hard to bear. Cardui has helped over a million women. Try it.
